First Tracts Real Estate

Hello Snowshoe Mountain Homeowners, and Welcome to Summer! The real estate market at Snowshoe is still plugging along in a mostly positive direction. Currently, we have a general inventory shortage on the resale side of the equation. If you have been contemplating selling, this may be a good time to talk to us about what your home is currently worth in today's environment.

Many developments on the mountain have zero homes listed, which may help increase the current value of your home. We welcome the opportunity to help answer your questions and guide you through the process of listing and selling your beloved mountain retreat. We understand that letting go of your home is not easy, but just remember, First Tracts is here to help.

Feel free to stop by our Village office, email us at info@FirstTracts.com, or call us at 304-572-4500. We are happy to answer all of your Snowshoe real estate questions.

Your friends,

First Tracts Real Estate
